

NEGRO TROOPS ARE DISGRACED

President Orders That Three Companies of Twenty-fifth Infantry be Dismissed.

CASE IS WITHOUT PRECEDENT.

They Had Refused to Divulge Names of Comrades Guilty of Violence and Murder.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Unprecedented in the history of the army of the United States is the action of the president just announced in dismissing in disgrace from the army an entire battalion of negro troops because of their failure to disclose the identity of some of their number who had been guilty of violence and murder. As an evidence, however, of his intention to be fair to the colored troops, the president has accompanied this action by an order which may amount to the court-martial of a white army officer of high grade who was charged with having cast slurs upon the colored troops. The action of both actions is told in official correspondence made public today by the military secretary.

The correspondence follows:

The report of an investigation made by Brig. Gen. Carlington, inspector general of the army, relative to the riotous disturbances that occurred at Brownsville, Tex., on the night of Aug. 10, 1906, and that resulted in the death of one and the wounding of another citizen of that city, has been considered and acted upon by the president. Following are his instructions with regard to the matter:

PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

"White House, Nov. 6, 1906.—Secretary of War: I have read Gen. Carlington's report, dated Oct. 22, submitted to me by you. I direct that the recommendations of Gen. Carlington be complied with and that at the same time the concluding portion of his report be published in full in the official correspondence of the army, giving the reasons for the action.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

GEN. CARLINGTON'S REPORT.

Following is the concluding portion of Gen. Carlington's report, which embodies the recommendations that will be carried into effect immediately by the war department:

"It is recommended that orders be issued as soon as practicable discharging without honor every man in companies B, C and D, of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, serving at Fort Brown on the night of Aug. 12, 1906, and forever debarring them from re-enlisting in the army or navy of the United States as well as from employment in any civil capacity under the government. In making this recommendation I recognize the fact that a number of the men who have no direct knowledge as to the identity of the men who actually fired the shots on the night of the 13th of August, 1906, will incur this extreme penalty.

"It has been established by careful investigation beyond reasonable doubt that the firing into the houses of the citizens of Brownsville while the inhabitants thereof were pursuing their peaceful vocations or sleeping, and by which one citizen was killed and the chief of police so seriously wounded that he lost an arm, was done by enlisted men of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, belonging to the battalions stationed at Fort Brown.

"After due opportunity and notice, the enlisted men of the Twenty-fifth Infantry failed to tell all that it is reasonable to believe they knew concerning the shooting. If they had done so, if they had been willing to relate all the circumstances—instances preliminary to the trouble it is extremely probable that a few sufficiently definite would have been disclosed. They appeared to stand together in a determination to resist the detection of the guilty, therefore they should stand upon the same ground when the penalty falls. A forceful lesson should be given to the army at large and especially to the commissioned officers, that their duty does not cease upon the drill ground, with the calling of company rolls, making inspections and other duties of formal character; but that they and their responsibilities accompany them everywhere and at all times; that it is their duty to become thoroughly acquainted with the individual members of their respective units, to know their characteristics, to be able at all times to gauge their temper in order to discover the beginning of discontent or mutinous intentions, and to anticipate any organized act of disorder; they must notify their officers at once of any such conditions. Moreover, the people of the United States, wherever they live, must feel assured that the men wearing the uniform of the army are their protectors and not midnight assassins or riotous disturbers of the peace in the community in which they may be stationed.

WHAT COL. PITCHER SAID.

"On Oct. 5, 1906, a squadron of the Ninth cavalry, an organization of colored troops, reported at Fort Sheridan, near Chicago, under orders from the war department, assigning them to duty there. Soon after this assignment there appeared in the public press the following account of a statement alleged to have been made with regard to the matter by Col. William C. Pitcher, Twenty-seventh infantry. The negro troops would never have been quartered

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

DEPLORABLE CONDITION CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

A Scranton Woman Tells How She Was Made Well and Strong By This Remedy.

Nervous debility is the common name for what the doctors term neurasthenia. It is characterized by mental depression, loss of the "blues," or melancholy, loss of energy and spirits. The patient's eyes become dull, the pink fades from the cheeks, the memory becomes defective so that it is difficult to recall dates and names at will. Some of these symptoms only may be present or all of them. The remedy lies in toning up the nervous system and there is no remedy better adapted for this purpose than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. James J. Davies, of No. 314 Warren street, Scranton, Pa., says: "Some years ago I became greatly reduced in health and strength and my nervous system became so debilitated that I felt wretched. I could not rest or sleep well at night and woke up as weary and languid in the morning as I was when I went to bed. My head ached in the morning and often there was a pain in my right side which was worse when I sat down. My nerves were on edge all the time, every little noise bothered me and I was generally miserable."

"Then I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, as my husband had taken them with good results, and they did wonders for me. Now I have no more pain in my side, no more headaches, I sleep well and feel strong and able to do my work." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best nerve tonic because they convey nourishment to the nerves in the only way that is in accord with the plan of nature. Through the blood, the blood is cured. Mrs. Davies and they can do just as much for every weak, pale, ailing man or woman who is slipping into a hopeless decline. They strike straight at the root of all common diseases caused by poor and impoverished blood, such as anemia, indigestion, biliousness, headache, backache, rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness and even more serious nervous disorders.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent postpaid, on receipt of 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

at Fort Sheridan without a protest if I was to remain in command here," said Col. Pitcher. "I never liked them and the farther away from me they are kept the better it is for me. For the sake of me I cannot see why the United States should try to make soldiers of them. Certainly there are enough fine white men in this big country to make soldiers of without recruiting from such a source." This alleged statement by Col. Pitcher has been brought to the attention of the president. The following communication will reach him, which was sent to the war department by Secy. Loeb:

"The president directs that an immediate statement be called for from Col. Pitcher to know whether or not he is correctly quoted in the enclosed clipping; and if he is correctly quoted, the president directs that proceedings be taken against him for such statement as can be inflicted. The president thinks that such conduct is but little better than that of the offending negro troops themselves. Very truly yours, "WILLIAM LOEB, JR., "Secretary to the President."

TRAIN HELD UP.

Passengers on a Santa Fe Train Relieved of Their Money.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 6.—Word reached this city this afternoon of an attempt to hold up Santa Fe passenger train No. 1 at Gallup. The train had stopped and the train crew was in the dining room when three men entered the coach and, armed with revolvers, made the passengers hold up their hands, securing several hundred dollars in money, several grips and overcoats from the passengers. The bandits then moved toward the front of the train when some of the passengers gave the alarm and the men escaped into the darkness. The robbers are thought to be tramps who had been forced off freight train during the day.

PICQUART APPLAUDED.

Paris, Nov. 6.—The debate in the chamber of deputies on the church and state separation bill was continued today. War Minister Picquart, who mounted the tribune for the first time to answer an interpellation regarding the bill, redressing the some of service in the army to two years, was greeted with a burst of applause from the left party.

The extreme left demanded that the transfer of church property to place Dec. 11, 1906, instead of Dec. 11, 1907.

ROBBERS ESCAPED.

Got Away With $7,000 From an Illinois Bank.

Ottawa, Ill., Nov. 6.—The two robbers who secured $7,000 from the Farmers and Miners' bank at Ladd made their escape last night after an exciting chase of 40 miles and after numerous battles with farmers who attempted to intercept them. After holding up the bank, the robbers drove to Peru, and at the point of a revolver compelled the ferryman to furnish them another rig. The robbers drove through four county townships with police armed with rifles in close pursuit. In Wallace township a lively exchange of shots took place, but the robbers secured a new team and escaped to Sheridan, where they abandoned the horses and caught a train for Chicago.

MURDERER MAKES FULL CONFESSION

Mystery of Series of Crimes in San Francisco is Fully Cleared Up.

A BOY AND A KANAKA GUILTY.

Killed Pittner and Friede, Robbed Japanese Bank, and Committed Several Hold-ups.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Admitting their part in three murders of incomparable brutality and several robberies, for one of which an innocent man was sent to the penitentiary for 30 years, Louis Dabner, a youth of 18 years, almost fresh from high school, and J. H. Siemsen, a Kanaka, and ex-convict, have in confession made for dramatic intensity exceeded anything in the criminal annals of San Francisco, cleared up the mystery surrounding the perpetrators of a series of crimes that caused a reign of terror in San Francisco and startled the entire country.

Urged on by his broken-hearted father, who, with tears streaming down his face, appealed to the boy's love for his mother, and to his religious training, young Dabner finally broke down and little by little related to Capt. De Detectives and Chief of Police Denny the amazing tale of how he and Siemsen murdered and robbed Johannes Pittner in his shoe store at 964 McAllister street; beat William Friede to death in a window sash west in a haberdashery store on Market street; robbed the Japanese bank of $4,200, killing the manager, E. Muraoka, with a piece of gas-pipe; beat A. Sasaki, a clerk, in a drug store; committed several hold-ups, among them that of Dr. T. W. B. Leland, for which James Sutton was convicted and sentenced to San Quentin for 15 years.

At times the boy, his father and an older brother who was present, would break down utterly and weep convulsively in each other's arms.

Because of these frequent interruptions the boy was two hours telling his story. So dramatic and intense became the scenes at times as the father sobbed and wept, his face white with praying for his son, that even the hardened police officials were visibly affected.

Late tonight Dabner's confession was first read to Siemsen, and he was then confronted with Dabner and the latter's father and brother. Siemsen confirmed Dabner's confession in every respect, adding to it many details, and enacted for the benefit of the police and the newspapermen present the several crimes which the two had committed.

With no signs of bravado and a naturalness that amazed the police, Siemsen related how he met Dabner, became attached to him, but for the youth's good told him that "some day" he would get caught, if he did not escape, so he prepared.

All of this was confirmed by young Dabner, who sought to be young and delicate in the use of his words and objected to the word "assault."

"It is vulgar," said he. "I don't like it. I think it would be better to say 'overpowered.'"

Both denied that there was any elaborate planning of the murder of Pittner and Friede, but declared that it was done on the impulse of the moment. Dabner stated that Siemsen suggested robbing Pittner as they walked past the store. They picked up a heavy window sash in the hallway, returned to the store where Siemsen dealt Pittner a blow while he was trying a pair of shoes on. Dabner, they got $100. Pittner's watch was thrown into the bay.

This was followed by the brutal murder of Friede, who was killed with a piece of gas-pipe by Siemsen while Dabner was trying on a coat. The confession next tells of the Japanese bank robbery and the killing of Manager Murakita and how Sasaki, the clerk, was struck again and again before he was left for dead.

Siemsen, from his share of the $4,200 stolen from the bank, paid $150 for a diamond engagement ring for Hulda Von Hohen, the 16-year-old daughter of a respectable jeweler, whom he married last week without her parents' consent, and who had no knowledge of his true character.

Siemsen stated that he is the son of a wealthy Hawaiian planter, who disowned him because of his incorrigible habits. He steadfastly refused to give his father's name, admitting that Siemsen is not his true name.

Siemsen is well educated and claims to have graduated from a military academy in Honolulu. He is an artist, a musician, and has numerous other accomplishments. He declared that he is to be the most remarkable character they have ever had any dealings with.

GIFTS TO CHICAGO UNIVERSITY.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The University of Chicago has received gifts aggregating $22,200 since Sept. 1. John D. Rockefeller is the largest of the recent benefactors. He has given $30,000 for the James Hall geological collection and library.

TEXAS JUDGE ASSASSINATED.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 7.—Dist. Judge Stanley Welsh was assassinated Monday night in his bed at Rio Grande City, where he was holding court. It is presumed the assassination grew out of the election in some way.

KID BROAD ARRESTED.

Arrest Followed the Probably Fatal Stabbing of a Man.

New York, Nov. 7.—William Broad, commonly known as "Kid" Broad, pugilist, was arrested last night after Thomas Burns had been stabbed and probably mortally injured. The stabbing occurred at a hotel at Broadway and Forty-second street, where, the police say, Broad was employed to keep the election crowds from blowing horns in the hotel. It is alleged that Broad attempted to prevent a party, including Burns, from entering the place, when Burns suddenly sank to the ground bleeding from a knife wound. The crowd rushed at a knife, but he was rescued by policemen and locked up on a charge of felonious assault.

AM. SUGAR R. CO. TO BE PUT ON TRIAL.

New York, Nov. 7.—The American Sugar Refining company and the New York Central Railroad are to be placed on trial today in the federal court on charges of alleged rebating. The railroad company is charged with giving rebates on sugar shipped to Cleveland and the American Sugar Refining company is charged with accepting the same.

"First Aid" to the Bowels

WHEN Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Headache, Bad Breath, coated Tongue, Belching of Stomach, Gas, or any of these forerunners of Indigestion appear, Old Dr. Cascaret wants to be right on the spot in your pocket.

Dr. Cascaret guarantees to cure the most obstinate cases of Constipation and Indigestion, without discomfort or inconvenience.

His medicine does not gripe nor purge, but exercises naturally the muscles that line the walls of the Intestines and Bowels.

Want of Exercise weakens and relaxes the Bowel-Muscles, just as it weakens Arm and Leg muscles.

Old Dr. Cascaret goes directly after these Bowel-Muscles. He wakes them up just as a cold bath would wake up a lazy person.

Then he works them (through the nerves) till they get so strong from that Exercise that they don't need any more help to do their duty.

Heavy dinners, late suppers, whiskey, wine or beer drinking, nervous excitement, sudden exposure to cold or heat and a dozen other everyday likelihoods tire the Bowel-Muscles.

In such cases a little Cascaret in time is worth fifty dollars worth of Treatment later on, to say nothing of the suffering, discomfort, loss of Business Energy, and loss of Social Sunshine it saves.

Little thin Cascaret Box, shaped so you don't notice its presence in purse or vest-pocket.

gether and it is probable that the New York Central will be tried first.

The maximum penalty is $20,000 on each count. There are two counts against each in the indictments found by a federal grand jury. In a previous case against the New York Central Judge Holtzman sentenced the company which was within $2,000 of the maximum penalty on each count charged.

It is not likely that the trials will occupy any considerable time, as the evidence is largely documentary.

FATHER LEADS HIS LITTLE BOYS TO DEATH.

Trinidad, Colo., Nov. 6.—Holding a hand of each of his two little boys aged 7 and 9 years respectively, and walking down the middle of the railroad track, C. A. Parham, cotton buyer of Corey, Texas, deliberately walked into Colorado and Southern train No. 1 near Childress, Texas, and was killed. The boys received probably fatal injuries. Parham had been drinking heavily it is said, and it is supposed that he was demented.
